FROM CHARLES LEWIS, ESQ.

VAUX HALL November 1st. 1757

DR. COLO.—'Tis now some Time since I wrote to Mr. Woodford, desireing him to procure me the Papers I left in yr. Hands relative to my Affair with Reynolds, I am now in want of them, and as he inform'd me You would send them if wanting. I beg you'll contrive them pr. first Opportunity. I received Yrs in which You inform me of Yr. giving Jackson the Liberty to inlist a Man in Lieu of himself, I am much oblig'd to You for the Indulgence, & indeed could have expected no more.

I should not desire the Papers but Reynolds has sued me & I can't possibly do without them, I should think a Copy of them would do for yr. Bussiness, I am Sr. Yr. oblig'd

Hble Servt. CHS. LEWIS —
